

Engineering excellence

Wrest Park Country Estate

Heritage

Wrest Park Country Estate

Client

English Heritage / Historic England

Main Contractor

E V Bullen

Value

£600,000.00

History

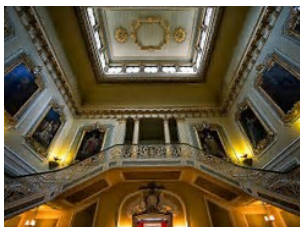

A beautiful country estate located in Silsoe, Bedfordshire, England, Wrest Park comprising a Grade I listed country house and 92 acres of formal gardens surrounding the mansion. Built in 1834 by its owner Thomas de Grey, 2nd Earl de Grey, an amateur architect, the mansion was based on French architectural designs of the time and features some of the earliest Rococo Revival interiors in England. Reception rooms in the house are open for public viewing.

Scope of Works:

An amazing project for us to be entrusted with by English Heritage/ Historic England, over a ten month period working closely with the client team and in house services to deliver this complete site wide HV/ LV sub main upgrade.

Services Installed:

- Site wide LV sub main cable upgrade
- New 800 amp LV modular panel installation
- Replacement HV 11KVA transformer
- All associated civils and building works
- New site wide CCTV installation
- Removal and disposal of existing sub main distribution cable
- Refurbishment of original LV switch room for Heritage presentation to the public

By Appointment to
Her Majesty The Queen
Electrical and Mechanical
Engineers and Contractors
E V Bullen London

